CANADA-UKRAINE PARLIAMENTARY PROGRAM FOR UNIVERSITY STUDENTS FROM UKRAINE

The Chair of Ukrainian Studies Foundation of Toronto is the sponsor of the Canada-Ukraine Parliamentary Program. CUPP scholarships for Ukrainian students allows them to:

- * work and study in the Canadian Parliament
- * learn about and experience first-hand the Canadian system of government, economy and society
- * improve English and French language skills
- * appreciate Canada and its people
- * return to Ukraine and share their knowledge and experience

Graduates of the CUPP Program have gone on to enrol and graduate from the Institute of Public Administration, Cabinet of Ministers, Ukraine; take up employment with the Foreign Affairs Department of Ukraine; receive scholarships to Harvard University Summer School; receive Edmund S. Muskie scholarships for graduate studies abroad; receive scholarships to pursue graduate degrees at the University of Chicago Law School and the University of Connecticut Law School; graduate from Roosevelt University, summa cum laude and return to Ukraine; serve as official translator in Crimea for delegation of Western Parliamentarians; apply for the Walter Surma Tarnopolsky Award; and intern at the Institut International des Droits de l'Homme in Strausburg, France.
